

Dr. Pathmawathi Subramanian is a renowned speaker and consultant in nursing and health care discipline. She started her career 25 years ago in Intensive Care Unit as a registered nurse before moving on to become a University Lecturer at University Malaya. She holds a doctoral degree from United Kingdom in Intensive Care Nursing. While in University Malaya, she has trained and supervised many nurse leaders and clinical nurse specialist locally and abroad. Beside focusing in her education and nursing service, she is also an auditor for Malaysian Qualification Agency and Malaysian nursing board with wide experience in accreditation process in most of Nursing Schools in Malaysia. At present she is a nursing entrepreneur and she is currently a nurse consultant in Nursing Synergy Sdn Bhd and manage a aged care center at Subang Jaya.