

Prof Faisham is a faculty in the department of orthopedics, in school of medical sciences, Universiti Sains Malaysia. He has sub-specialized in musculoskeletal oncology and traumatology. He obtained his medical graduation from the National University of Malaysia in 1994. Subsequently completed his post-graduation from Medical School of Universiti Sains Malaysia in year 2000. He joined in USM as a lecturer in orthopedics. He received his fellowship in Musculoskeletal oncology from St Vincent/ Peter Mc Callum Cancer Center, Melbourne, Australia and Traumatology from Landesklinikan Saizburg, Austria in 2004. Dr Faisham published more than 50 research papers in medical journals and 2 text-books related to his field. He is currently an active member of International advisor to Asian Pacific Musculoskeletal Oncology Society and Trauma Fellow of Association of Internal Fixation (AO ASIF).